CRYSTAL CREEK’S VERY OWN AUTHOR VISIT & BOOK SIGNING

At last week’s assembly we had our very own book signing. Our very talented PUBLISHED AUTHORS Ari M and Max M signed the book Text Generation and each wrote a special dedication.

Ari and Max’s short stories were published in the book and we have purchased two copies for our school library.

Students can look at these during library sessions on Thursday or during silent reading times. Parents and caregivers are also encouraged to have a look at the books and read some of the great stories.

The book Text Generation was part of the Write4fun 2014 short story and poetry competition. For more information, check out their website http://www.write4fun.net/

Congratulations to these two wonderful writers! Please don’t forget about us at Crystal Creek when you are famous!

Aboriginal Cultural Sharing Workshop

MURWILLUMBAH TWEEDE CHILD AND FAMILY FORUM

THURSDAY 21ST MAY, 2015 | 12-2.30PM
ALL SAINTS ANGLICAN CHURCH
32 BHANGUM ROAD, MURWILLUMBAH

Naomi Moran, Communities for Children Project Worker, will lead a workshop in developing practical skills necessary for working alongside Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people and communities. Naomi will bring a deeper understanding of how to maximise participant engagement and create a positive experience for service users. Naomi’s presentation is highly interactive, relying on the experiential nature of the workshop to convey the material.

This workshop will be a ‘taster’ for a full day training in Aboriginal Cultural Education, sponsored by Communities for Children, Professional Development. This training will be available later in 2015.

This forum is designed to foster collaboration, connect services and give people working with children and their families the opportunity to contribute to forum discussions on issues that affect their work. Each forum begins with a networking session where workers are able to give program updates and introductions.

Please contact us if you would like to give a short (10min) presentation in this session.

RSVP by 18TH MAY, 2015 to Naomi on 66256811 or
